Come to Fiesta de los Amigos – noon parade will start the fun

"SENORITA LINDA" Carolyn Wolter, a great grandniece of Tiburcio Vasquez, the colorful desparado who frequented these parts some hundred years ago, will ride in the Fiesta de los Amigos parade as its official hostess. She will also help present prizes and be the belle of the street dance. Miss Wolter's illustrious early California ancestors also include a great grandfather, Tirey Ford, who was attorney general of California. She is the granddaughter of Mr. and Mrs. Byington Ford and the daughter of Mary Jane Wolter of Ford Road, Carmel Valley, and the late Dean Wolter. Carolyn is 20 years old and is training to be a nurse at Hartnell College.

"We'll dance till we wear the pavement smooth!" is the promise made by Fiesta Street Dance chairman Elizabeth Hoisington who has a great evening of fun and dancing planned for 9 p.m. to 2 a.m. Saturday evening. The Fiesta area on Del Fino will be roped off for the dance and a bandstand will be rocking with the rhythms of Marty Artellan and his five-piece band.

The swinging street dance is a happy job for Elizabeth who merrily recalls the rip-roaring street dances that were held many years ago in the Village and in which she always played an important part. Along with Marty, Sam Brandt, Dr. Ed Marcucci and many other Valley residents who will be doing their share to make the 1967 Fiesta a success and who also played major roles in the first "Fiesta de los Amigos" 18 years ago.

Elizabeth chairmans this year's dance for the Carmel Valley Women's Club which sponsored the entire 1966 Fiesta singlehandedly and which will be putting on not only the evening street dance but will also have a multi-splendored Wine Tasting party in the Patio of the Plaza Building.

Besides sipping many varieties of wines from the historic Mirissou Vineyards, guests will nip cheeses and sample crackers, watch a fashion show presented by Joanne Sears, and buy keys to unlock "Tiburcio Vasquez' Treasure Chest" A quarter will buy one key, a dollar buys five. Purchase of a key also provides entrance into the Wine Tasting Party, and the key also comes with the price of admission to the Street Dance.

Fifty cents will admit juniors 17 and under to the dance and will provide one free key to the treasure. A dollar will admit those 18 and over and provides two free keys.

The patio will be sparkling with flowers and a pinata for the Wine Tasting, according to the Mmes. Hoisington, J. A. Stewart and Larry Cummings who are to be decorating for the big day. All the members of the Women's Club board of officers will be hostesses

(Schedules on pages 4, 5)

Village Commitee sets Fiesta mood with decorations

The Village Committee is responsible for the decorations that are dolling up the Village in a Fiesta mood.

Joan Bennett, Ken Van Hagan, Bob Kvenild and Pat Swan took the necessary steps to hire the Bay Area Flag Co. to deck out the business establishments of committee members. Non-members were invited to use these services also, and many have done so.

F. Porters make new proposal for Robles 'open space'

A third proposal for the 20-acre "golf links" property in Robles del Rio – sale for residential lots to benefit CV Community Center – was made this week by Mr. and Mrs. Frank Porter, veteran Valley developers.

Porter estimated that sale of about 30 three-quarter acre lots from the property would gross about $200,000. He volunteered to handle the subdivision completely without charge except for such necessary costs as surveying.

"We don't want any money from it," Mrs. Porter commented. "We feel it would be wonderful to do something to help pay off and improve the Community Center. And we hope the suggestion would put an end to the present conflict."

The Porters added that their attorney is studying legal procedures. A trust fund would be set up at the bank and shareholders in the Robles del Rio Water Co., who hold the property, would be repaid.

The Water Co. is scheduled to meet Sept. 19 to elect two members to the board. Question before the board is whether to accept proposal from Earl R. Scannel, Los Gatos golf course developer who is offering to develop the Robles del Rio property as a private golf club and to purchase Robles del Rio Lodge.

Robert Read, former board member, is leading the opposition, which wants to keep the property as a meadow

Fund started for Kathy O'Campo

A trust fund has been set up for little Kathy O'Campo who has undergone surgery for a brain tumor three times this month at Community Hospital. At last report she was still in a coma but rallying, and plans have been made to send her to Stanford Hospital for further treatment.

The CV Volunteer Fire Dept. Auxiliary started Kathy's fund with a $100 donation. Additions from a dollar up may be made to Kathy's fund in care of Mrs. Tillie Knight at the Bank of America.

Kathy, 10, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Sal O'Camp, Via Contenta, C.V. She has a sister and two brothers.

Darlene Davis, Jonathan McCaman wed in CV

The Rev. James Brock officiated at the wedding of Darlene Davis and Jonathan McCaman August 19 at St. Dunstan's Episcopal Church.

Darlene is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Davis of Carmel Valley and Jonathan is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Le-Earl McCaman of Carmel.

Two large bowls of mixed summer flowers decorated the alter for the occasion.

Darlene came down the aisle on her father's arm wearing a sheath gown of silk organza accented with French re-embroidered Alencan lace. The lace motif on the bodice was accented in seed pearls. She wore a pill box hat of French lace embroidered with seed pearls and a French illusion veil, and carried a white bible with a cascading bouquet of baby white roses and stephanotis.

Maid of honor was Renee Davis of South San Francisco and Nancy and Toni Deck of Carmel Valley and Pamala Redhead of Carmel were bridesmaids. The girls wore floor length moss-green chiffon gowns with bows and three-tier veils to match and carried cascading spider chrysanthemums.

The bride's sister, Lori, was flower girl.

Tom Conklin of San Jose was best man with Rick Davis and Skip Stathes of Carmel Valley, Larry Littlefield of Carmel and Ruben Gomez, Visalia, acting as ushers.

Mrs. Davis wore a floor-length mariner blue French crepe dress for her daughter's wedding, and the bridegroom's mother wore a floor-length Venitian Rose French crepe dress.

The young couple are spending a two week honeymoon in Canada. The brides going-away costume was an orange dress with shoes and bag to match and a winter white coat.

Darlene and Jonothan both attended Carmel High and Monterey Peninsula College. They will make their home in San Francisco while Jonathan finishes his studies at Golden Gate College.

New student notice

New students for Tularcitos School were urged by Principal George Gustafson to register Thursday or Friday to relieve the rush when school opens next Tuesday.

True 'fiesta of friends'

The name tells the story — fiesta of the friends. Not just a high-spirited fun fest, Fiesta de los Amigos celebrates the spirit of friendship which community teamwork generates.

Everybody's in the act. Practically every organization in the Upper Valley is doing its part to produce a family fiesta which truly promises to be a bit bigger than last year's great success.

The parade through the Village will launch activities at noon. Dr. Ed Marcucci professes amazement at the number of people who are continuing to call to give the word they will parade, too.

The Village will certainly be packed to enjoy the variety of activities scheduled for Del Fino Place. Everything from artists in action to fun booths of all kinds will ensure something of interest and entertainment for all.

The annual Trail and Saddle Club Horse Show the same weekend enlarges the scope of activities. Pres. Bob Angell and his hard-working group deserve the applause of the community for their services.

The Fiesta committee, headed by that master coordinator, Sam Brandt, has been in action for two months. A great deal of planning and work have gone into this major production.

Salud to all you bustling friends of the Fiesta who have done so much to make it go!

Theater continues Carmel tradition

The spirit of old Carmel has been pleasantly alive this summer in the Sunday afternoon programs at Forest Theater. Generating a bit of nostalgia among oldtimers who remember the drama tradition of days gone by at the delightful outdoor theatre, they have also greatly appealed to a Peninsula-wide audience.

In the olden, golden days some fine original drama came alive in the woodsy setting. Now and then top talent was drawn by its charm. Costs were largely borne by generous individuals.

With such sources no longer available, the city of Carmel has helped underwrite the series with a $1,600 allocation. The appreciative crowds, which have averaged around 350, have contributed another $50 or so in small change at each entertainment.

Costs have varied from no charge to $150 for some professional groups. Talent has varied from bagpipers to ballet dancers.

The final afternoon program will be next Sunday at 2 when Nancy Ness Bowman will present her Opera Workshop group. The climax is production of the popular musical, "Oliver," based on Dickens' "Oliver Twist." Jointly sponsored by the city of Carmel and the Carmel Unified School District, "Oliver" will debut Friday at 8:15 p.m. at the Forest Theater. Directed by Cole Weston, it will also be presented Sept. 8, 9, and 10.

Much of the credit for the success of the programs goes to the hard-working committee in charge: Mausita Jennings, Joseph Danysh and Chairman Barbara Norberg.

Thank you, Carmel.

PERSPECTIVE

TO THE EDITOR

(Editor's note: Very much in the spirit of La Fiesta de los Amigos is Congressman Bert Talcott's letter in genuine Spanish in answer to Fiesta Chairman Sam Brandt's invitation to come on over for the fun. Get out your Spanish dictionaries, Fiesta fans, for here's the letter:)

Muchisimas gracias por su carta del 4 de agosto, 1967, invitandome a tomar parte en la celebracion de la Fiesta de los Amigos el de setiembre.

Me agrada su amable invitacion. Parece que el Congreso estara en sesion hasta el Dia de Accion de Gracias, y que estare muy ocupado con las actividades del Congreso y del Comite de Apropriaciones. Por eso no puedo comprometerme. Asi que creo que debo rehusar para que Ud. pueda completar los arreglos para la Fiesta tan pronto como posible.

Mis mejores desseos para una Fiesta feliz.

Attentamente,

The Rhyming Philosopher

Most dreary of the disciplines we face
Which call a halt to unleashed playing,
Are those which designate a meeting place
And pose compulsory obeying.

Yet are we not all slaves in some degree
To job or plow or some such master?
But seldom ordinarily are we
Appalled or rate it as disaster.

Each has his yoke and each its weight to bear
Some unapparent to another;
While some are blest to have a mate to share
As did your father and your mother.
All honor then to those who know the truth
And overcome the obstacles of youth.

And so it is when schooldays must resume
The tyranny of tiresome learning.
Yet none of us are ever quite immune
To lessons constantly returning.
Know this, and write it down — none but the fool
Regrets restricted hours he spent in school.

Pet of the Week

CUDDLY PUP. This three-month-old is very shy from lack of love and care, according to the folks at the SPCA Animal Shelter at 2099 David Ave. in New Monterey.

We haven't a clue to her ancestry but Mrs. May, 375-3333, will probably be able to enlighten you. And if you can't adopt this puppy, you can still help her, indirectly, by contributing to the SPCA building fund and patronizing Sappy's second hand shop in Carmel, Dolores and 5th. Bring them your white elephants... if they can't sell them there... they'll save them for their annual rummage sale.

Boyce was a founder of the Boy Scouts and the statue which will be cast in bronze will go in a school in Puerto Rico which bears his name.

Leonore Woolams' workshop

Sculpture Guild opens in Sunset Center

More and more interesting cultural happenings are being incorporated into the Sunset Center complex. One of the most recent to open its doors is the Carmel Sculpture Guild in Room 15. A workshop in sculpture from the basics on is being conducted on Tuesdays and Thursdays by Carmel sculptress Lenore Woolams.

In giving directions to the light, spacious studio, Mrs. Woolams notes that it is way in the back on the Mission St. side, next to the used lumber pile. Without these instructions it could be impossible to find, since the room is tucked down under the main Sunset building out of sight.

Mrs. Woolams started her interest in sculpture when she was about 16. She studied with Glebb Derujinsky in New York and was a pupil of Bufano's in San Francisco for three years.

She also studied with John Storrs in Chicago and Paris and studied with Carmel Valley's Alex Weygers on carving.

Her five-foot-tall "Madonna and Child" is in the niche over the California St. entrance to Grace Cathedral in San Francisco. This was done before she was stricken with polio in 1939. After recovering sufficiently to work again (she sculptures from a wheel chair), she was commissioned to do two five-foot statues in Honduras Mahogany for St. Sebastian's Catholic Church in Marin County.

In addition to her workshop at Sunset Center, Mrs. Woolams also has classes at the New Monterey Neighborhood Center and a special workshop for the physically and visually handicapped on Saturdays.

Although the workshop has just begun and things are just beginning to get settled, there is a lot of activity on Tuesdays and Thursdays. A shiny new kiln is sitting in the center of the room awaiting heavy duty electric lines for installation.

This was provided for Mrs. Woolams through vocational rehabilitation for handicapped people under the Department of Health, Education and Welfare. Mrs. Woolams was high in her praise of this government body, saying that it gives nothing away, just because a person is handicapped, but goes far in helping someone who has a valid plan to get on his feet.

LATER STUDENTS may branch into the abstract after a good foundation is reached. Mrs. Woolams nephew, Kenneth, works at a statue of a dancing girl. He will be in his second year as an art major at MPC this fall.

Knotty problem of the illegal motels solved

By MARJORY LLOYD

ILLEGAL MOTEL ORDINANCE . . . Land development in Carmel in the past, like Topsy, "jes' growed" at a pace inconsistent with, and without due regard for, the establishment zoning laws. As a result, for many years illegal motel uses have existed in the city's residence zone to the discomfiture of the city council and, presumably, the citizenry.

Demands to eliminate these illegalities have been made over the years but little formal action to abate them was initiated. However, for the better part of a year the present city council has sought a solution to this zoning problem.

Complicating the council's considerations have been two factors. Illegal motel properties in the residence zone have changed ownership at high prices. There has been recent expansion of some of these properties, a development which the council sought to prohibit.

In addition, some of the hostelry uses in the residence zone did not conform to present health and safety regulations. Because they were illegal, these lodging uses were in a zoning limbo. Owners could not upgrade their property with major improvements. Neither could the city demand such upgrading.

What was to be done?

First the council proposed 20-year amortization of all motel uses in the residence zone. At the end of this time these properties would revert to single family residence use. In view of high prices paid by purchasers of some of these lodging facilities, this proved to be an inequitable answer to the problem and was abandoned.

Of interest to the council during discussion of this proposal was that insignificant objection to the existence of the illegal motels was expressed by the citizenry.

The second council recommendation was spot zoning. This device would make them legal

'Oliver' at the Forest

Musical play to be given in outdoor theatre

LITTLE BOY with a big part is Scott McGowan who has the title role in "Oliver" the musical play which will open Friday at Carmel's Forest Theater.

Here Scott rehearses a scene with Dorothy Lundblat who plays a kindly housekeeper who befriends him. Demonstrating how it should go is Director Cole Weston.

Scott is the son of Capt. and Mrs. Ronald Melanson. He is the grandson of the late broadway actor, Tommy Thompson and last year, while his family was in Germany, he took a leading part in a Christmas play. The production was written and directed by his step-father who was serving in the army there. Capt. Malanson is now in Vietnam. Scott's family moved to Merrill Way, Carmel Valley, last April, in time for Scott to get acquainted at Tularcitos School before graduating. He will attend Carmel Middle School this fall.

Scott's understudy is another Valley boy, Peter Granoff, son of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Granoff of Rancho Rd.

The "Oliver" cast is star studded with experienced actors, well-known in this area. Maggie Weston, who plays "Nancy," has been heard in many local musicals and has had night club and musical comedy experience here and abroad.

Paul Hazdovac, "Bill Sykes," has been heard as a singer in Masonic Lodge circles and in the First Theatre of Monterey. Dick Vreeland, "Fagin," has had leads in many local plays, among them "Pepe Dream," "Janus" and "The Gazebo."

Also seen in principal roles in Peninsula productions are a British couple, Edgar and Betsi Pye, who play Mr. Bumble and the Widow Corney (who becomes Mrs. Bumble. Rounding out the cast are Barbara and Gunnar Norberg as a funeral director and his wife, and a large number of local youngsters playing members of Fagin's gang of winsome pickpockets.

Four pretty vendors who cry their wares in a musical sequence are Grace Patapoff, Beverly Blair, Ida Glen and Helene Bailey.

"Oliver" will be presented Sept. 2, 3, 8, 9 and 10. Tickets are $1.50 for adults and $1.00 for children.

Carolyn Bishop to show works at M.P.M.A.

"Interpreting Humans" an exhibition of paintings, sculpture, and drawings by Carolyn Bishop will be on display in the Monterey Peninsula Museum of Art on Lincoln in Carmel Sept. 5–29.

Mrs. Bishop was born in Sweet Springs Missouri in 1930 and received her B.A. in painting at the University of Missouri before moving to the west coast with her husband, Ben Bishop, in 1960. They worked in the Monterey area until he was offered a teaching job in New Paltz, New York in 1965.

The drawings and tiny sculpture in this exhibit comprise Mrs. Bishop's most recent work. They are colorful works which she explains are searching for the interpretation of the human quality in man.

UNDER THE OAKS & AMONG THE CACTI

By Mildred Hattan

Very special guests at the Holman Guest Ranch for two weeks have been Mrs. C.E. (Vivian) Holman's sister, Vera, and brother in law, Jack. Mr. and Mrs. John Guinan of Bristol, Vermont, last visited in 1954. Previously they were here in 1950 when Mr. Guinan who was president of the National Angling and Casting Association was its representative on the West Coast. Both Mr. and Mrs. Guinan hold U.S. Fly and Bait Casting championships. The on Saturday for the Hawaiian Islands where they will visit their son, Everest and his wife, Barbara, who live in Honolulu. Their son, now in the insurance business has just retired after 20 years Army service including Korea and Vietnam. During their stay, Mr. Guinan was guest speaker at the Carmel Lions Club; they enjoyed a visit with long time friends, Mr. and Mrs. Robert H. Wilson of San Mateo; and were feted at an Aloha Party in Carmel on Sunday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Guinan's brother and wife, Mr. and Mrs. Murle Ogden of Mesa Drive and Trevis Way.

Amy Brock celebrated her ninth birthday with a Japanese tea party at the Robinson Canyon home of her parents, Rev. and Mrs. James Brock. Fans and parasols were were the delightful favors for the guests who were served by Amy's sister Becky, and Terry Jaseau, both of whom were in Oriental costume. Games included hilarious attempts to "pin on a que" and a charming Oriental story read by the 'two little maids.' Invited by the guest of honor who will be a fifth grader this fall at Carmelo were: Bonnie Bean, Liz Lyons, Claire Twohig, Megan James, Heather McFee, Mary Ann Gawain, Camille Stewart, Lynn Borstine, and Leslie Forzani.

The Brock family which also includes Michael and Joey, recently returned from an exciting vacation. Enroute north they took the Rogue River mail boat excursion which prepared them for the ferry boat trip from Port Angeles to Alaska, but not for the spectacular beauty of the glaciers and icebergs on the inland passage. The Valley family were among the fortunate tourists to view the Alaskan Centennial before the destructive flood and learned a good deal of Eskimo culture from the fascinating exhibits. Southbound they made their way down the Alcan Highway to Vancouver B. C. enjoying the mountain beauty and glimpses of wildlife. Stopping in Seattle they discovered the site of the 1962 World's Fair is open to visitors. They spent a day exploring and were in complete agreement that their favorite spot was an International Market place with fascinating items from all over the world.

Sabin Paul Speiser arrived August 9 at the Community Hospital. The baby boy who weighed 8 lbs. 9 ozs. is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Zane Speiser of Holman Road. Named for a family friend, Sabin Grey, the new arrival was welcomed by a brother, Benje, and two sisters, Tegan and Tara. Happy grandparents include Mr. and Mrs. Thomas O. Cloud of Visalia (Mr. Cloud is delighted to have another fishing companion!) and Mrs. Betty Speiser of Carmel who assisted with the three older children until Imogene and Sabin came home from the hospital.

Remember "The Saucy Little Bird on Nellie's Hat"? Well plan to attend the "Hats and History" stage show during Fiesta de los Amigos where you will see Nellie (Mrs. Theo Mirani, one of the models), hats, and even a bird! Show time is 3:30 p.m. in the multipurpose room of Tularcitos Elementary on Ford Road. Sponsors of the performance featuring hats that made history are the Carmel Valley Lionettes.

After a pleasant two weeks visit, Mimi Brown was driven back to her home in Mill Valley by her niece, Lois Deal. While here she was the guest of her sister, Vera Stokes on Via Contenta. It has been almost three years since she moved from the Valley. Vera, Lois, and her son, Brian, spent a few days in Sunnyvale with the Deal's daughter, Donna Wilson and family. Their visit coincided with the open house at Moffett Field featuring the spectacular flying of the Blue Angels.

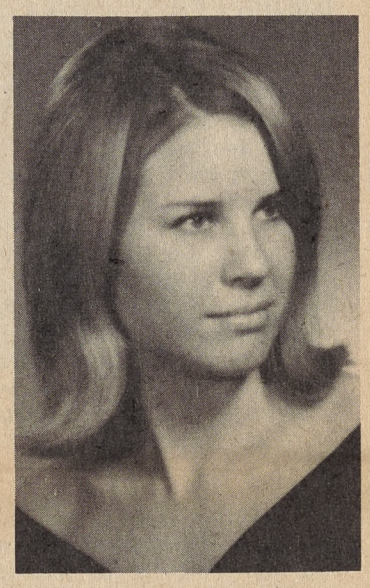
Engaged



The engagement of Cynthia Hansen to Thomas John Anson has been announced by her parents, Cmdr. and Mrs. T.W. Hansen of Middle Canyon Rd. The wedding will be held at St. Dunstan's Episcopal Church later in the fall.

Thomas is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Anson of Grand Junction, Colo.

Cynthia is a graduate of Gettysburg High School, Gettysburg, Pa., and is presently a sophomore at West State College in Gunnison, Colo. She has two sisters, Kathleen and Tedde, and three brothers, Christopher, Mark and Eric. Mrs. Gertrude Mathews and Mr. and Mrs. Jack Dyer of Santa Cruz are her grandparents.

The future bridegroom is a graduate of Grand Junction High School. He attended Mesa College in that city, Umpqua College in Roseburg, Ore., and is presently a senior at Western State. He has one sister, Mary Ellen.

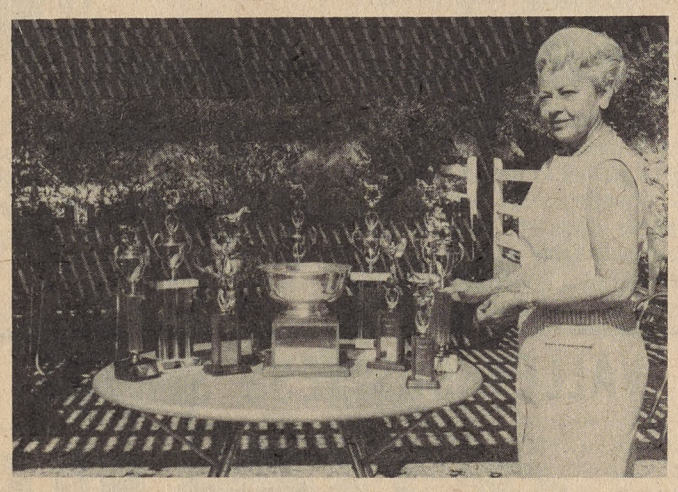
Trophies ready for Horse Show



AWARDS CHAIRMAN Ruth Angell lines them up to admire the awards to be won by riders and showmen at the 12th Annual Trail and Saddle Club Horse Show Sept. 2 and 3. Mrs. Angell's committee included Gene Fairchild, Elaine Riddel, Nancy Rushmer and Laura Mae Sherman.

Opera workshop next in outdoor concert series

The Sunday afternoon series of free outdoor concerts at the Forest Theater will resume this week with the appearance of the Opera Workshop of Nancy Ness Bowman.

Madame Bowman, organizer and director of the local group, who has herself had a distinguished operatic career, has announced that arias and ensembles from the operatic works of Verdi, Puccini, Mascagni, Mendelssohn and Saint Saens will be featured.

Among the soloists will be baritone Vince Russo and soprano Nina Russo who delighted audiences at the Carmel Youth Concert at Sunset Auditorium last October.

Songs from the popular Broadway musical play, "Man of La Mancha" will be included in the program which is presented under the auspices of the city of Carmel-by-the-Sea Cultural Commission.

Clown to caper at gay Fiesta

"Pickpockets," the jovial clown who at the Carmelo Carnival charmed both the young in years and heart, sends sincere regrets to the Fiesta Board of Directors that he will be unable to attend the September 2 event.

However, his distinguished cousin, "Senor Pancho Pickpocketero" just happens to be making a goodwill tour north of the border and will graciously let Fiesta small fry (for a fee) search his pockets for a surprise.

ANN BROWNE STARS as a heart-rendingly happy heroine with Lex North as her handsome ranger hero in the spoof on old-fashioned "smilin' through" type musicals of the McDonald-Eddie era at the Studio. Their side-kicks in the picture are Carlo Crossman (far left) as a myopic Indian and Dick Felty as a stalwart chief.

"Little Mary Sunshine" is a happy summer success and will run one more week at Carmel's theatre-restaurant, closing Sept. 3. In rehearsal now is "Barefoot in the Park," opening Sept. 8.

The mails brought a chuckle filled missile from Col. (ret.) Carl and Major (ret.) Neva Maiser who have reached Minnesota where they immediately became involved in a flurry of constructing a home on Lake Waconia. Enroute east they visited in Cheyenne Wyo. with Neva's brother, and her sister, Ethylyn Hartwell she spent her winters with the Maisers on Sage Road. They are in temporary quarters while awaiting the completion of their home. Their two cats (inherited from Vie and Bob Kirksey when they left the Valley) are also missing the wide open spaces of Carmel Valley. A message from Neva read: "Friends and acquaintances of CV, Our Valley is very dear to us as will be our new home on the Lake Waconia. Our dearest hopes are that the CV friends will visit us on the lake. We miss you. Just don't have the time to write individually yet. You all in CV will hear from us eventually."

Mrs. Richard Gayman with sons, Brett and Tod recently visited her sister and family, Mr. and Mrs. William Albee and family in Sunnyvale. Barbara and the other five Albees were among those present at the family reunion held in the Valley to welcome four month old Anastasia to the clan. Anastasia who joins a six year old sister is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ronald Wait of Antelope Valley. Welcoming their three daughters and their families were Mr. and Mrs. Fredrick F. Horne of Chaparral Road.

Mrs. Margaret Bennett and children; Susie, Laurie, Greg, Ronnie, Julie, and Elaine returned from a weekend holiday with greetings from three former Valley residents. The Laurel Drive family spent one night in Fresno with Mrs. Christine Sager before continuing to Visalia to visit Mrs. Sager's daughter and her husband, Tina and Lee Perry. The Perrys took them to visit their summer home at Three Rivers which is enroute to the new Disney project at Kingsburg.

If the Village Library suddenly has waiting lists for copies of "Rascal" and "Racoons Are the Brightest People" by Sterling North, it will be due to the enthusiasm of Mr. and Mrs. Elbert Wade who visited Northern Aire in Wisconsin. Author North describes the unique settlement made famous as an orphanage for baby animals. The animals are raised together and live in harmony, cared for by the staff and its head nursemaid, a gentle St. Bernard. The Wades returned to their home in La Rancheria after a ten week trip which included Michigan, Northern Minnesota, solid carpets of wild flowers in the Tetons and Sun Valley

Mrs. Moore is visitor from Texas

ALICE JOHNSON (left) and her guest, Olivia Moore, both former national officers of Pi Beta Phi sorority, met other local Pi Phis at the CV Golf and Country Club for lunch recently.

Alice Weber Johnson, of Nido Way, who recently retired as the grand national president of Pi Beta Phi sorority, entertained Olivia Smith Moore from Texarkana, Tex., last week. Mrs. Moore just retired from her post as grand national treasurer of Pi Phi. During her years in office she built the administrative organization into a million dollar business, supplying loans to individual Pi Phi students, building loans to chapters, scholarships, etc.

Valley Firemen assist hunters

Members of the Carmel Valley Volunteer Fire Department were called to assist members of a hunting party near the Los Padres Dam who suffered food poisoning from drinking lemonade out of a lead lined canteen. Leonard Castleberry of 506 Cedar Ave. in Pacific Grove and Leonard Rockwell of 512 Hannon Drive in Monterey were rushed to the Community Hospital at 11:30 p.m., August 18, for emergency treatment and released.

Welcome Friends!

Dear Friends,

May I be the first to invite you to attend the annual Carmel Valley "Fiesta de los Amigos" to be held in the Village Saturday, Sept. 2. The event will make a fun-filled Labor Day Weekend for visitors in the Valley with all civic groups turning out to provide entertainment and good food – all in the spirit of the old Spanish Ranchero Days which saw Carmel Valley start in the time of Padre Serra.

Among the weekend plans is the big Twelfth Annual Trail and Saddle Club Horse Show which will also be open to the public beginning at 9 a.m. on both Saturday and Sunday, Sept. 2 and 3, on the Club's grounds with no charge on Saturday and $1.00 per car on Sunday.

A noon parade on Saturday will have bands, children, antique cars, costumes and horses which will lead visitors to the Fiesta area on Del Fino Place which will be gay with Fiesta booths all day. There will be games, food, wine tasting, soft drinks and libations, mariachi band, an antique hat show, a continuous program of free entertainment and an entire area just for children's games, food, rides and entertainment.

A favorite feature will be the "Art in Action" demonstrations by the many professional painters, sculptors, potters, authors, weavers, photographers, etc. in a lovely oak-shaded area of the Village. An amateur art show displaying only Carmel Valley subjects will be new among the many art events planned by the Fiesta Committee which strives to preserve the rich cultural assets of the Valley, just as the first fiesta represented the birth of culture in California.

Del Fino Place will also be the setting for the Fiesta Street Dance from 9 p.m. to 1 a.m. Saturday night with music by Marty Artellan's five piece band, refreshments and entertainment old-time style. The White Oaks Theatre, a non-profit professional theatre training center, will have three separate musical productions that weekend.

The pastoral setting of Carmel Valley provides an ideal backdrop for the Fiesta, recalling the old days when the end of harvest and the fall round-up called for a three-day celebration. The people of the Valley today enjoy an unsophisticated and friendly life, with horses, swimming, fishing and sunshine an important part. The "Fiesta de los Amigos" is truly a Festival of Friends. A product of the Valley people themselves the Fiesta will display the work of its own members, avoiding commercialism and dedicated to its youngsters and beloved Old Times. Any proceeds from the Fiesta booths will go into a fund to benefit the Valley's youth activities. So Come, Have Fun!!

GRAND OPENING

monterey JAZZ festival

Big blues concert Saturday Sept. 16

Performing in the Saturday afternoon, Sept. 16, "Big Blues Bag" concert at the Festival will be Muddy Waters and his band with blues-folk singer, Richie Havens.

The Ornette Coleman Quartet has been added to the line-up of performers who will appear at the Tenth Annual Monterey Jazz Festival, Sept. 15, 16 and 17.

Coleman, who performs on alto saxaphone, violin and trumpet, made his first appearance at the festival in 1960. He will perform with his group during the Sunday afternoon concert at the Monterey County Fairgrounds.

Also scheduled for this concert are: Gabor Szabo Quintet, Gil Melle Electronic Jazz Quartet, and the world premiere of the performance of new music written by Yugoslavian composer-arranger Miljenko Prohaska. Prohaska will conduct the Don Ellis Orchestra in this new jazz composition.

Ornette Coleman made his first appearance at the festival in 1960 as a result of a suggestion by John Lewis, of the Modern Jazz Quartet. Lewis, who was acting as musical director for the Monterey Jazz Festival then as he is now, organized an afternoon program of "New Music" which featured the sometimes controversial musician.

Joan Baez in benefit concert

Joan Baez will present a concert of folk music at the Monterey Fairgrounds Arena Saturday, Sept. 2, at 8:30 p.m.

Proceeds will benefit the Institute for the Study of Non-Violence in Carmel Valley and Young Adults for Action of Seaside.

Promise Her Anything, But Give Her

A Carmel Sunset,
especially in the Fall . . . Sandpipers on the early morning beach . . . the wonderful "clean" smell in the air . . . 5,592 Monterey pine trees and 3,068 oak trees, 1,232 acacias and 490 cypress (inside the city limits). Give her bird songs in the morning and moonlight on the water and squirrels to feed and racoons to watch. Give her the white sand beaches, and time to walk on them, and a dog to walk on them with her.

And Give Her Quaint Shops
to browse and artists and craftsmen to provide delightful things to look at, and a public library with a fireplace which is USED . . . fascinating people from all over the world for her neighbors . . . symphonies to hear and ballet to watch, or auto races, or golf matches, or dog or horse shows.

Let Her Have Pt. Lobos
and lots of live theater and seven o'clock in the morning at Fisherman's Wharf in Monterey. Let her have the cool mist of the beaches or the sunshine of the Valley. Let her take the classes in anything she wants to learn from Greek to sculpturing.

Expense?
Most of it is free except the 50 cent fee at Pt. Lobos or unless you buy a fish from the wharf markets. (If she acts or works in production, she can have free tickets to most everything in the theater line).) (And the dog is waiting at the animal shelter.)

It's All Part of the Good Life
in the Carmel area. As to where you'll live, we have homes priced from $20,000 on up, or we'll help you find a rental if you can't buy yet. We have homes in the sunshine and homes in the shade, on the rocky coast, in the forest, up on the hills and down in the valleys—all of them accompanied by all of the above mostly free items. And if you can afford the very best, we have some of the finest Carriage Trade homes on the Pacific Coast.

Promise Her Anything,
but give her Carmel! May we help you?

The Doctor says:

By Dr. James Short,
103 Robles de Rio,
Carmel Valley, 659-4223

In previous articles I've given considerable attention to the subject of coronary heart attacks. Now I'm going to consider another type of attack, often less sudden and dramatic, but serious. This is called a "congestive heart failure." It's not necessarily related to coronary artery disease, although it may be.

As the term implies, there's a failure in circulation due to a progressive weakening of the heart muscle itself. This is often the result of high blood pressure and increased load on the heart which has caused the heart chambers to dilate. For a time, this extra load may be compensated by increased size and power of the heart muscle.

An enlargement of the heart takes place. If the load is too heavy and too prolonged, however, it may overwhelm the heart's powers of compensation until circulation begins to fail and blood stagnates in the various organs of the body. Fluids accumulate in the lungs and other tissues, particularly in the ankles and legs. The liver enlarges from the congestion and becomes tender and painful, and the kidneys also become engorged with stagnant blood.

There are many early warning symptoms of the approach of failure, and the outlook for recovery is good with a physician's care and the patient's cooperation. Perhaps the symptoms can best be illustrated by an actual case history.

A few years ago I spent an evening with an elderly gentleman. During the conversation I noted that he was short of breath and obviously struggling to keep up his end of the conversation. Breaking off, I asked for permission to feel his pulse. It was rapid and weak.

Although he hadn't noticed it, his ankles were much swollen. I recognized that he was in heart failure and advised him to go straight to bed and to call his family doctor. He did so, and later I received word that he had recuperated well, had been rid of his swelling, and was much better.

Before recovery was complete, however, and against his doctor's orders, he had gone for a short trip in his car. He collapsed suddenly, lost control of his car, and ran head-on into another vehicle. The other driver was injured, but my friend was dead — not from injuries received, but from heart failure. His mistake was in disobeying his doctor's orders.

The heart's ability to recover from repeated attacks of failure is often amazing. To avoid such failures in the first place, or to prevent their recurrence, is the aim of doctors. A properly regulated work load, sufficient hours of rest, a low salt diet, the proper use of digitalis, attempts to lower a high blood pressure, are all measures currently in use.

Such measures are usually successful and often insure many additional years of productive life. The term "heart failure" is therefore not so ominous as it sounds. Recovery is the rule.

These articles would be pointless if they didn't activate the readers to look after their health. Do you know the condition of your heart, kidneys, circulation, liver, and other organs? Do you get a periodic checkup at least once a year? Are you as kind to yourself as to your automobile? Or do you just wait until something breaks?

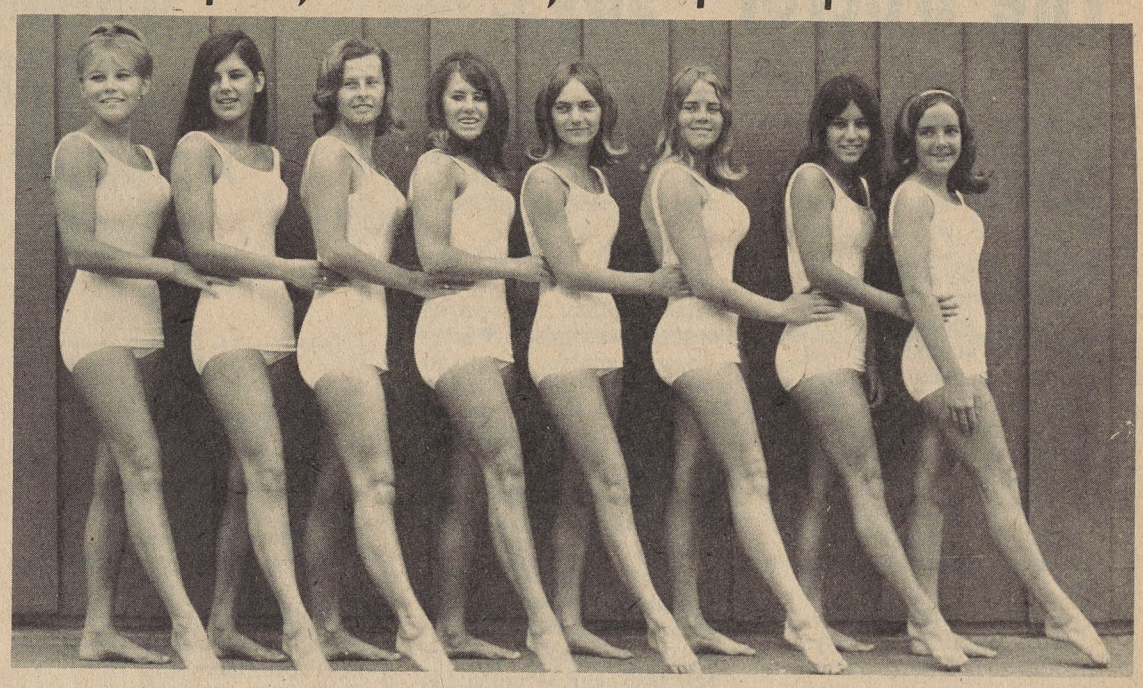
Lineup of beauties for 'Aqua-Spectacular'



SWIMMING the routine with which they captured third place in Jr. National AAU and seventh place in Sr. National AAU Synchronized Swimming Championships last month on the east coast, will be the members of the Cypress Swim Club's "A" team when the local club presents its third annual Labor Day weekend "Aqua-Spectacular" at the MPC pool, Saturday and Sunday, Sept. 2 and 3, at 2:30 p.m.

Some of the top-ranked synchronized swimmers in the nation and the world will join in the benefit performance with all proceeds going toward operating costs of the non-profit Cypress Swim Club. Featured performers will be Carol Redmond of the San Francisco Merionettes, winner of the Criterium d'Europer, the Canadian Dominion Championships, and member of the 1966 and 1967 "All American" teams; Kim and Kris Welshons of the Santa Clara Aquamaids, as well as the Santa Clara Aquamaids' "A" team, the second place team in National AAU competition, and the team which performed for Mrs. Lyndon Johnson and her party at Hearst Castle last year.

ABOVE — BELL FOR THE Soledad Mission was cast by the famous Mexican bellcaster, Ruells, in the early 1700's. Wind whistling across the wide Salinas Valley rattles the eucalyptus leaves and increases the feeling of aloneness.

SOLITUDE MARKED THE UNHAPPY HISTORY OF SOLEDAD MISSION

Soledad Mission was the thirteenth in the chain of California missions and it lives up to the stigma attached to the number. The victim of three separate floods in the Salinas River Valley, the big mission church was washed out in the first one. While being rebuilt, it was washed out again, before completion.

The mission was founded on Oct. 9, 1791, by Father Lasuén and named for Our Lady of Solitude. The name had been originally attached to the area by Captain Gaspar Portola and Father Juan Crespi when they traveled through, while searching for Monterey Bay. They caught a word spoken by the Indians that sounded like "soledad" and interpreted it as the Spanish word for lonely.

When Father Junipero Serra stopped at the spot on his way from Carmel to dedicate the San Antonio Mission, he also heard the word used in reference to the place and decided to name the new mission after Our Lady of Solitude.

There were so few Indians in that section of the Valley that the mission was slow to be populated. After agriculture developed and it started to become more prosperous, more Indians joined the mission ranks until there were close to 1,000 converts.

After the floods, and illness that besieged the livestock, they began to disperse.

Father Sarria was the last padre to have charge of Soledad Mission. He fell dead in front of the altar and was carried by the Indians to San Antonio Mission for burial. Father Ibanues stayed the longest because it was impossible to find anyone who would replace him.

In 1849, J. Ross Browne of Soledad wrote about the mission... "A more desolate place cannot well be imagined. The old church is in ruins... not a tree or shrub to be seen anywhere in the vicinity."

BELOW — THE MISSION is primarily in ruins with piles of adobe marking Indian huts. In 1950, the Daughters of the Golden West started rehabilitating the buildings.

An Outlook picture story
by Ginnie Drew

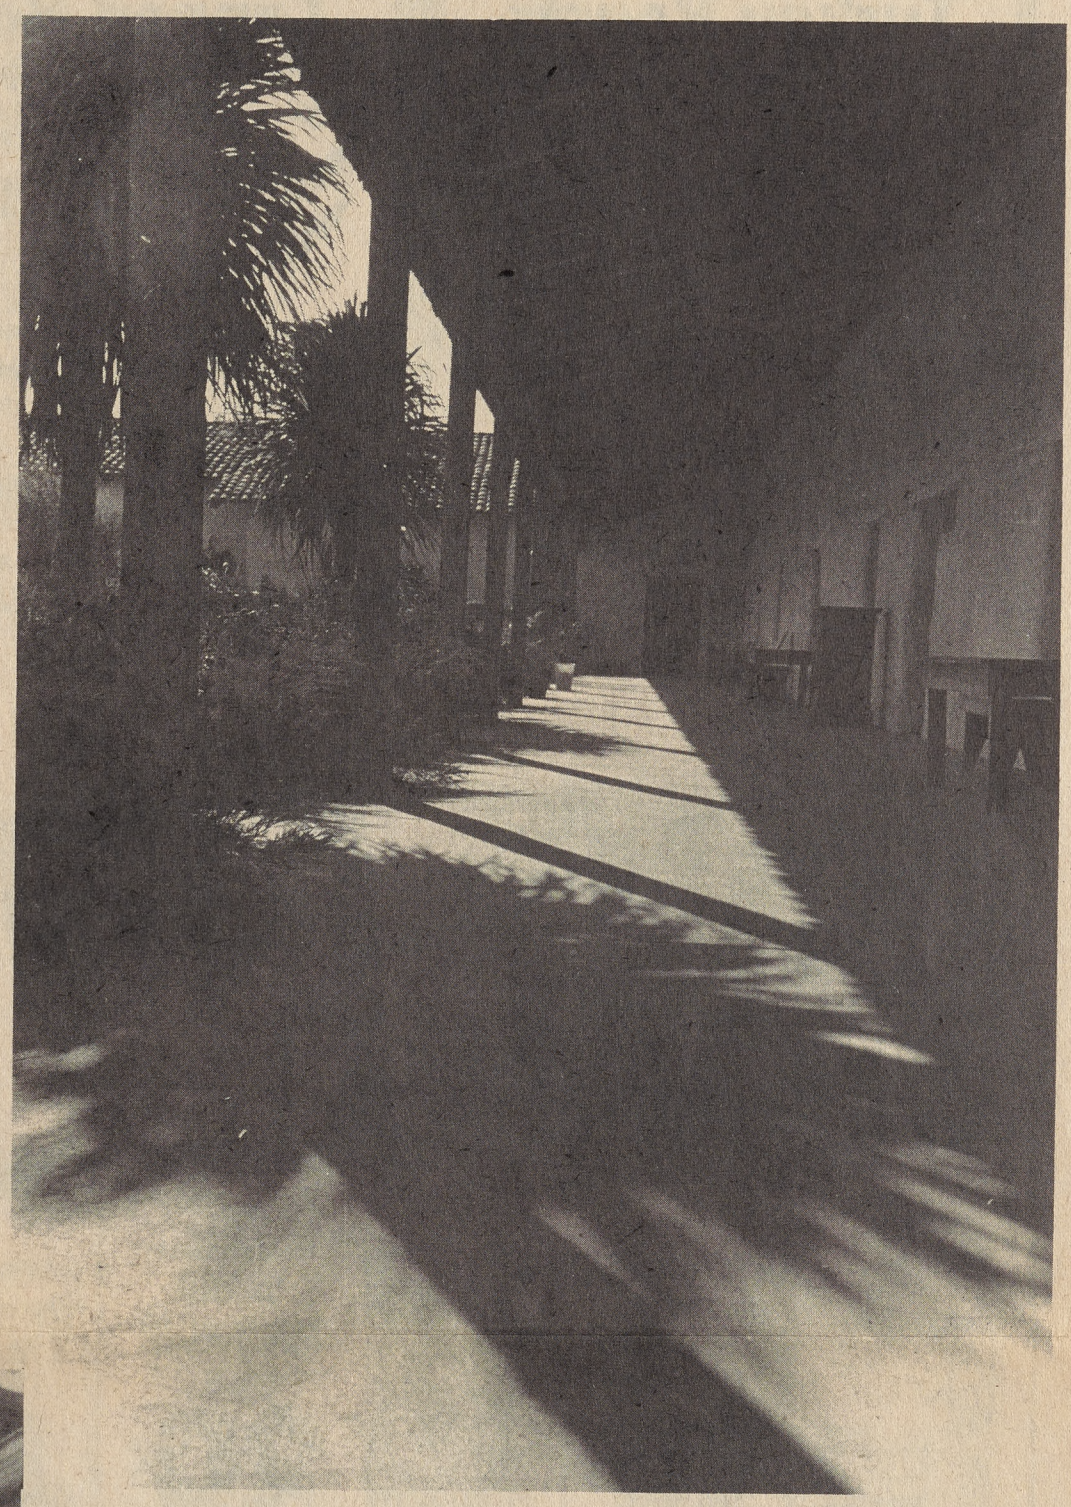
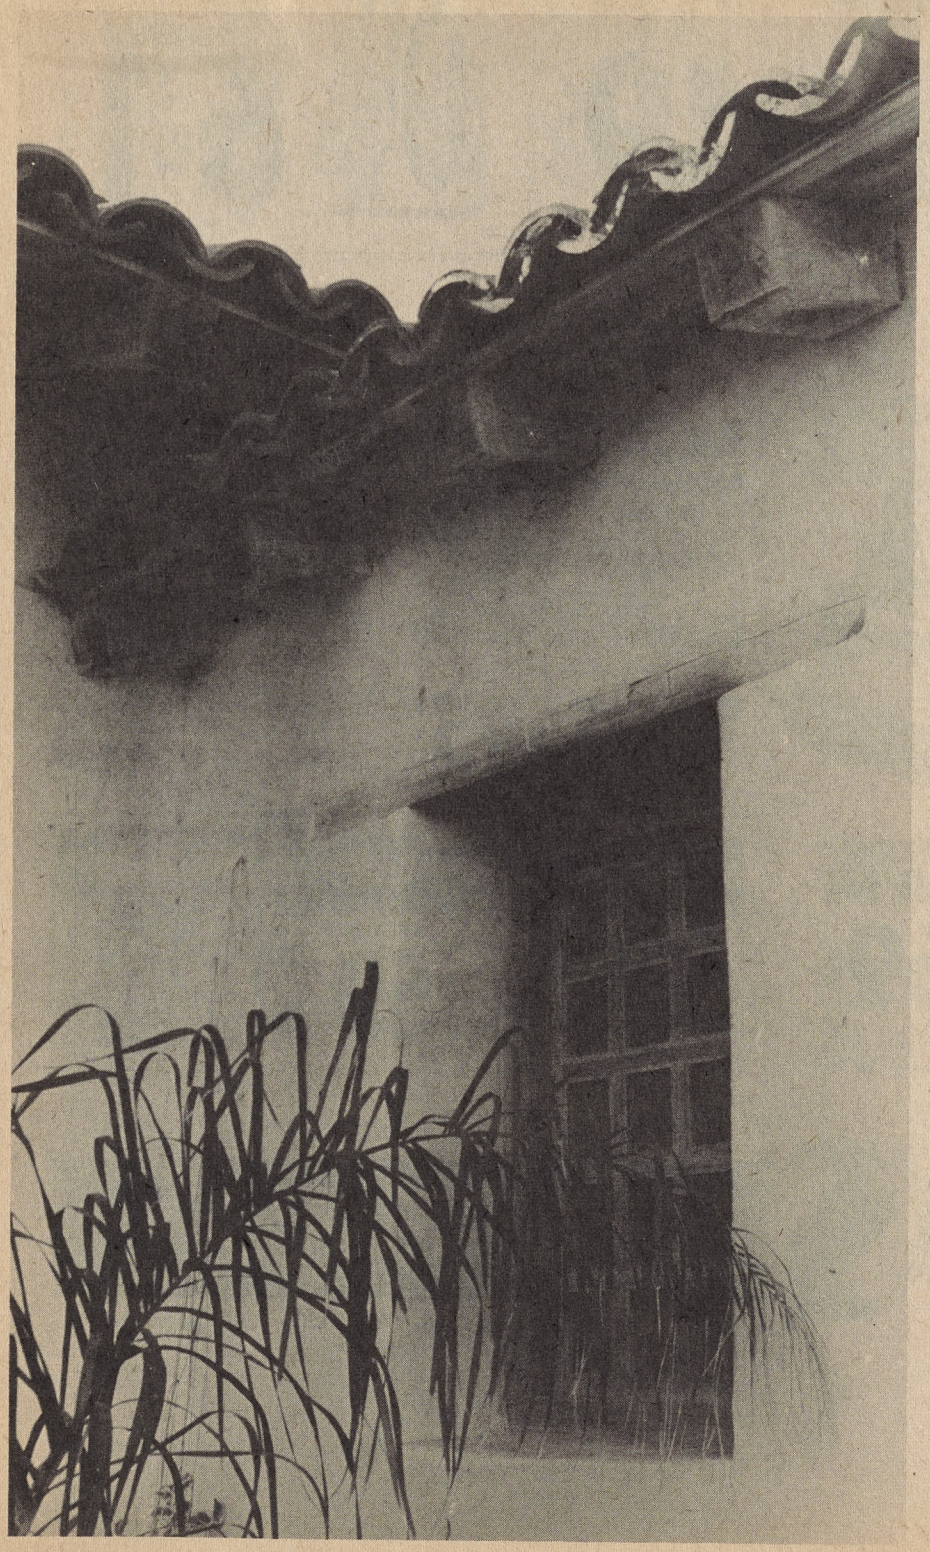
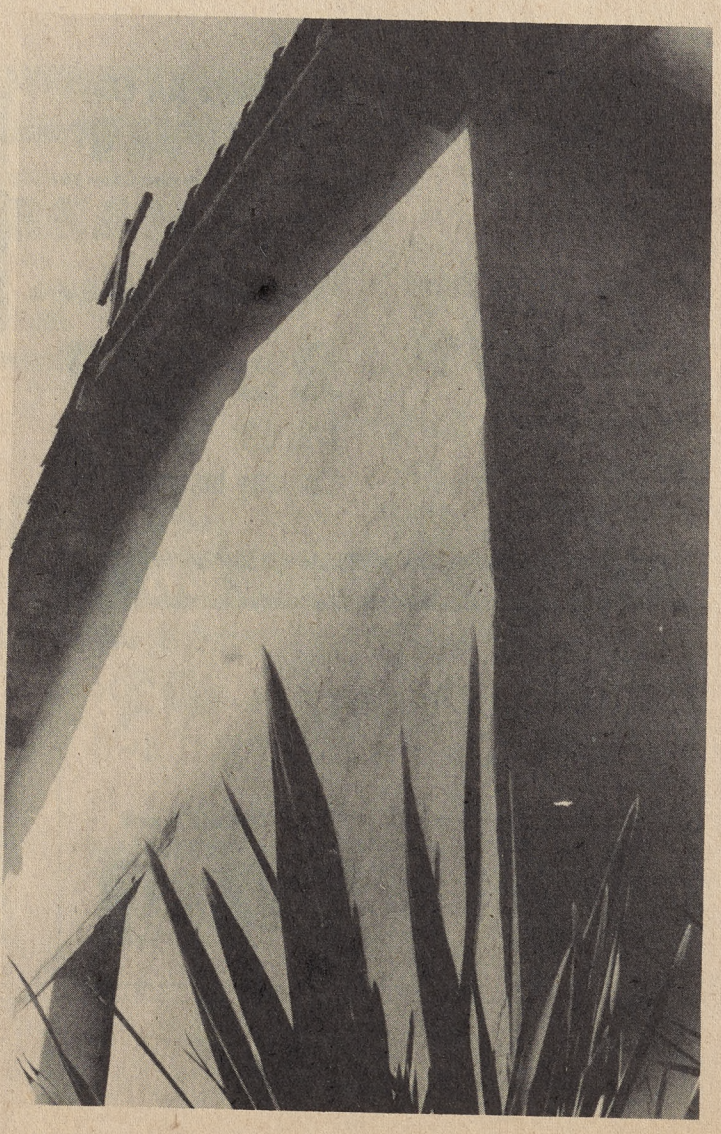
ABOVE - CRUDE SIGN marks the location of the mission. To reach it one takes a side road off U.S. 101, three miles south of Soledad. The ruins are one mile west of the highway on River Road. Adjacent to River Road is Mission Road, but don't let this fool you... it doesn't lead to the mission.



THE PADRE'S WING and portal were restored in 1963 and form the major portion of the mission that is not in ruins. Facing the inner courtyard it now gives an air of peace and tranquility that seemed to be missing from the mission's actual history.

BELOW — AFTER HAVING been abandoned for religious purposes, the complex became a ranch house until the tiles from the roof were sold to pay off debts. This corner, accented by spears of river bamboo, is in the restored chapel.





ABOVE — RESTORATION was started by the Daughters of the Golden West in the chapel in 1954. This section with its doorway is the oldest standing part of the building.

Womens Club plans tea; gets ready for Fiesta

The Carmel Valley Women's Club will hold a Hospitality Tea Wednesday Sept. 6 at 12:30 in the Community Center, for members and friends

The Board of Directors will be hostesses, and a group from the White Oaks Theatre will entertain.

The Board has been meeting monthly during the summer in order to organize the coming year's activities. Program plans for future months include: Dr. and Mrs. J. Blacow. renowned world travelers; David Pickett, an authority on extrasensory perception; and Jerry Winters and Susy Scott, well-known Peninsula entertainers. A bridge-canasta party and a special Christmas party are also planned.

For mothers with small children there is a baby-sitting service provided at a nominal charge during meetings. If this service is needed for the Hospitality Tea, please call Gloria Stewart, 624-5845, or Ruth Pick, 659-2792.

The club is sponsoring a wine and cheese tasting booth in the Plaza Court from 2 to 6 p.m. at the Fiesta de los Amigos Saturday. During this time a fashion show will be presented by Joanne's.

The club is also sponsoring a street dance on Delfino Place from 9 to 1 with Marty Artellan's Band.

Community Chapel Guild

It was a family venture at the August Benefit Bridge and Canasta Party sponsored by the Community Chapel Guild when they met at the La Rancheria home of Mrs. Elbert Wade. Ruth's co-hostesses were her daughter, Barbara, and her aunt, Mrs. Jenny Clark. Mr. Wade assisted the ladies by parking their cars! The rooms were an array of color with each of the seven tables a different shade decorated with cut paper flowers and tallies in contrasting colors. Arrangements of Hoya and giant Buck Wheat in ribbon bedecked baby food jars were made by Barbara and awarded as prizes. The dessert was "Moonbeam" which appears as Ruth's contribution to the Valley Fare Cook Book. High in Canasta was won by Mrs. Rudolf Ploense. Awards in Bridge were made to Mrs. Daniel Coleman and Mrs. David Caswell.

White Oaks Theatre Guild

Members of the White Oaks Theater Guild have been meeting weekly at the Los Ranchitos home of their president, Mrs. Frank Crispo to make paper flowers. The crop of vibrant, beautiful, colorful flowers will be harvested in time to be displayed and sold at their Fiesta de los Amigos booth centrally located on the north side of Del Fino Place. In addition to the gay bouquets, the Valley's newest organization will offer for sale, Zip Code books, paper back books, and packaged peanuts.

Lionettes

Club honors Japan guests

Mrs. John Darch, hostess for the August dinner meeting of the Carmel Valley Lionettes baked fortune cookies with amusing predictions in honor of the two guest speakers for the evening, Chikako Inoue of Chichbu City, Japan and Kyoko Matsumato of Osaka. The girls have been Valley guests of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Hebert and Mr. and Mrs. Art Fosso. The girls are on a goodwill tour of the United States sponsored by the Lions Club of Japan. The membership welcomed a new member, Mrs. Ed Eagling and a guest, Mrs. Gladys Lee of San Jose.

Kiwanis

Hefling's team wins contest

Tom Hefling's team won the big Kiwanis attendance and membership contest. His hard-working team consisted of Herb Brownell, Ned Skilling, Ralph Updike, Bill Norton and Les Jewett.

According to Secretary George Clifford the contest generated a great amount of steam and a high attendance record.

Don Quinto's team came in second and Rex Pryer's, third. Lou Gardner was the leading point-procurer followed by Kevin Walsh and Andy Fitzgerald.

Points piled up when members attended interclub meetings. Pres. Joe Ricupero with Keith Howell, Dean Campbell, Lou Gardner, Mannie Mancebo, Gene Leeder, Ned Skilling and George Gustafson attended a meeting at Marina and outnumbered the regular members.

Members Hefling, Norton, Walsh, Brownell and Updike attended a recent Carmel meeting.

Speaker at last week's meeting was Bob Sherry, president of the Monterey Club who told about the International Kiwanis Convention at Houston. Prospective member Bob Malloy was a guest.

The Kiwanis calendar includes the Fiesta de los Amigos, Sept. 2 when Kiwanians will be joining in the work and the fun; Sept. 12, stag barbecue at Prince's Camp; Sept 19, nominations from the floor and Sept. 26, annual election.

and provide controls.

The planning commission, when the spot zoning was referred to them, as it must be by law, frowned on this zoning device and favored legalizing the motels through use permits granted by the commission sitting as a board of adjustments.

The solution eventually agreed upon by both the council and commission employs use permit control. Consequently, on Sept. 20 the commission will hold a public hearing on a proposed ordinance which will legalize motel uses in the residence zone provided they meet standards set for obtaining a mandatory use permit.

In the ordinance a motel is defined as any building or group of buildings, on one site and under one management, with four or more guest rooms rented as sleeping accomodations.

In order to obtain a legalizing use permit, any such lodging accommodation must meet certain standards. These are that the establishment must have existed prior to January 1, 1967; all structures conform in design and bulk with the residential character of the surrounding area; all taxes due the city have been paid.

Stated in the proposed ordinance is that if any property which has been granted a motel use permit ceases to be used as a motel for one year then the permit will terminate and the property be designated only for single family residence use.

The proposed ordinance allows motels in the residence zone to be upgraded by reconstruction, remodeling or alteration after an amendment to the property's use permit has been obtained.

Reconstruction is defined as replacement or rebuilding of a structure, the cost of which exceeds the assessed valuation of the existing buildings on the site. Remodeling or alteration is designated as change in design, floor plan or appearance of a structure, the cost of which exceeds $2,000.

To obtain the needed amendment for any of the above improvements certain standards must be observed. All reconstruction, remodeling or alteration must comply with regulations demanded for motels in the commercial zone in respect to design review, landscaping, signs, retaining walls and floodlighting. More restrictive conditions may be imposed, the ordinance states.

Furthermore, upon reconstruction each lodging unit must have an area of not less than 1,500 square feet. An added unit must meet the same site requirement. Under no circumstances may existing parking spaces on a motel site be eliminated. If site coverage is reduced by elimination of any units, additional parking will be required until there is one parking space for each lodging unit. Upon reconstruction or addition of any units one parking space per unit will be required on the motel site. An additional floor level for parking will be allowed, after a variance has been obtained, provided this parking is below street level.

All upgrading and additions to the legalized motel structures must conform in design and bulk with the residential character of the surrounding area and the number of lodging units per building be restricted to no more than ten. Building coverage is limited to 35% of the motel site. Height and setbacks of improved buildings must conform to residence zone regulations.

In the event any motel property is granted a use permit amendment for reconstruction, remodeling or alteration, and the work is not started within a year, the amendment will be invalid.

On Sept. 20, at the planning commission public hearing, owners of residence zone motels will have an opportunity to express their reactions to the restrictive new law which will legalize their properties and permit improvements providing they can meet all the above requirements.

LIMITING BARS. . . No person spoke for or against amendments to the municipal code at the planning commission public hearing last week. One amendment limits the maximum average density for bars and package liquor stores to one per block or a total of eight in the Carmel business district.

Wynne hurt in crash

A single car accident resulted in a badly broken arm for David E. Wynne, 26, one of the White Oaks Theatre's leading actors recently. His small foreign car failed to negotiate a turn on Esquiline Road near De los Heloches and struck a tree.

"The Knack," the play he was co-starring in at the theatre, was forced to end its run two nights early.

Amateur artists show at Fiesta

The Amateur Art Show, a new feature in the 1967 "Fiesta de los Amigos" Art Show, has two dozen entries listed as of press time, according to Mrs. Rex Pryer, chairman of the Art Show.

Entries include: Dolores Bowman, Phyllis Calley, Diane Crane, Deborah Dickens, Gene Fairchild, Corleen Fontana, Helen Greer, and Jean Hofsas.

Elma Horne, Sylvia Johnston, Rosemarie Manke, Effie Nelson, Dr. Mildred Michols, Helen Ortley, Mary Alice Porch, Joan Ray, Adriann Ricupero, Betty Scheldrup, Patricia Sorri, Shirley Sullivan, Dorothy Smith, Gertrude Warner, and William Walker.

Judges who will award prizes include Carmel Valley professional artists Eugene Baker, Al Parker, and Marlinde Von Ruhs.

Amateur artists are to bring their paintings to Mrs. Conrad Olsen at the Plaza Building on Del Fino Place between 10 a.m. and 5 p.m. on Friday, Sept. 1, or before 10 a.m. on Saturday morning. Mrs. Eugene Baker (Ann Rugh) will have charge of hanging the entries.

Paintings by Carmel Valley children are now being taken at the Carmel Valley Library with entries accepted until noon Friday, Sept. 1. Mrs. Bettie O'Neal has charge of the children's show.

Fiesta traffic note

Sam Brandt asks that all those planning to attend the Saturday "Fiesta de los Amigos" who are within walking distance of the Village to please leave their cars home that day. Traffic and parking problems are anticipated, with visitors coming to the Fiesta and Horseshow from all over the State.
